Speaking Topics and Themes

What keeps us engaged in the work we do and inspired and motivated by the leaders we follow? If you think it's things like the incentive of rewards or the advancement of a career, you're not alone – but, according to recent research that's not the case. Unprecedented data shows that disengagement and indifference in the workplace around the world are at an all-time high, and the reason is that leaders don't know how to inspire their teams to see and realize their potential. In his talks, he shares a surprising answer to the crisis. He uses the concept of surfing as a tool to unleash the potential in those we lead and in turn watch our people and our organizations flourish.
